

This proposed rule would have made it impracticable for me to operate a seaplane, sightseeing business in my Lake amphibian, around the Finger Lakes of New York State. I can only imagine the numbers of small, home based, sightseeing businesses faced with extinction, if all had to operate under Part 135, in multi-engine aircraft. This is one rule that deserves a second look.
Ed Pevear